JSL Seeks Nominations for its Award for Distinctive Service

Aug. 18, 2009

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio – Junior Service League is seeking nominations for its Award for Distinctive Service, which will be given to a distinguished past member of Junior Service League at its Sustainer Tea on Saturday, Nov. 7, 2009.

Past award recipients include Lori Bartell, Mary Lu Noonan and Gretta Runyan.

The award will recognize a Junior Service League past member who, through demonstrated leadership, compassion and community service, has directly and positively impacted the Springfield, Ohio, community, and whose generosity of spirit inspires others to take an active role in the community.

Junior Service League will present the award at its Sustainer Tea on Saturday, Nov. 7, 2009, at the Courtyard by Marriott Downtown Springfield. The event costs $20 per person and is from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. To purchase a ticket, call Heather Maurer at 342-1654.

“We want to recognize a past member who exemplifies the spirit of Junior Service League,” said Heather Leifheit, president of Junior Service League. “Just as Mrs. Bertha Crabill, Mrs. Margaret Martin and Mrs. Laura Mae Carlisle took an active interest in charitable and civic enterprise when they founded the Springfield Junior Service League in 1933, our award recipient will reflect that same commitment of community service.”

To nominate a past member of Junior Service League for the Award for Distinctive Service, view the league’s Web site at www.junior-service-league.org. A nomination form is available on the Web site. Or, contact Heather Maurer at 342-1654. All nominations must be postmarked or e-mailed by Sept. 15, 2009.

Junior Service League, a nonprofit women’s organization, supports and enhances the Springfield community through community service projects and fund-raisers.
