Junior Service League conducts clothing drive for Interfaith Hospitality Network

March 16, 2009

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio – Junior Service League conducted a clothing and toy drive among its members in February to help the families of Interfaith Hospitality Network.

For the 2008-2009 year, JSL members have donated their volunteer hours to Interfaith. Throughout the year, league members are helping Interfaith with various service projects. In December, Junior Service League joined other area churches and organizations, helping Interfaith Hospitality Network with its fifth annual Christmas Tree Extravaganza fund-raiser.

“Conducting a clothing and toy drive is one way Junior Service League can help the families of Interfaith Hospitality Network,” said Bre Theiss, 2008-2009 president of Junior Service League. “During these bad economic times, we want to do all we can to help people in need.”

Interfaith is accepting donations and has ongoing needs for pillows, trash bags, detergent and hygiene products. To donate, please contact Susie Castle at Interfaith at 325-8154.

Junior Service League, a nonprofit women’s organization, was founded in 1933 by Mrs. Bertha Crabill, Mrs. Margaret Martin and Mrs. Laura Mae Carlisle. The league supports and enhances Springfield through community service projects and fund-raisers.
